The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday Auguſt 4. to Saturday Auguſt 8. 1730.

Hambourg, Auguſt 8, N. S.

GEneral Lowenhorn, his Daniſh Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Pruſſia, is expected here to Day or to Morrow from Berlin in his Way to Sleſwick, to wait upon the King his Maſter. The King of Poland has ſent two of his natural Sons, Count Rudowski, and the Chevalier de Saxe, to ſerve as Voluntiers in the Imperial Army in Italy; and at the ſame time his Majeſty has ordered Baron Lowendal to ſerve in that Character in the Spaniſh Army. On the 2d Inſtant Dr. Stahl paſſed through this City in his Way to Sleſwick, where his Daniſh Majeſty is at preſent, who has ſent for him to conſult him about his Illneſs. It is believed that his Daniſh Majeſty will uſe the Mineral Waters at Drage, heretofore the Place of Reſidence of the Counts de Rantzow; and that he will afterwards make a Tour to Olderlo, and thence to Gluckſtadt.

Windſor-Caſtle, Auguſt 7.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable James Earl Waldegrave, to be his Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the moſt Chriſtian King.

Whitehall, Aug. 4, 1730.

Whereas a Sum not exceeding Fifteen Hundred Pounds was granted to His Majeſty in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, upon Account of one Year's Penſions from the 25th Day of December 1729, to be allowed to the Widows of ſuch Half Pay Officers of the Land Forces, as ſerved and were married before the 25th Day of December 1716. Now to the End that a proper Liſt may be prepared for His Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual for the Diſtribution of the ſaid Sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds, It is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, That all ſuch Widows as ſhall deſire to partake thereof, as entitled by the Deſcriptions above mentioned, ſhall and do before the 29th Day of September next, bring and deliver at the Office of His Majeſty's Secretary at War in Whitehall, a Certificate ſigned by two or more credible Perſons, in the Form or to the Effect following, viz.

" We do hereby certify, that we verily believe that A. B. Widow, now reſiding in " is the Widow of who did " ſerve as an Officer of the Land Forces before the " 25th of December 1716, and that ſhe was married to him before that Time; and that her ſaid " Husband died upon the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment of " Half Pay in Quality of on or about the " Day of and that to the beſt of " our Belief ſhe ſtill continues the Widow of the " ſaid Officer, without any Proviſion from the " Government either in Great Britain or Ireland

To which Certificate ſuch Widow ſhall make Oath before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, that the Contents of the ſaid Certificate are true, and ſuch Oath to be ſubſcribed by ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices before whom it ſhall be made.

Wm. Strickland.

Navy-Office, Aug 3, 1730.
